FUNDING OPPORTUNITY

CORE VOUCHER RFA

T1/T2 ACCELERATOR PROGRAM

APPLY FOR VOUCHERS WORTH UP TO $10,000 IN CORE SERVICES

The UCLA Clinical and Translational Science Institute (CTSI) provides the infrastructure to translate scientific discoveries into innovations that improve health in Los Angeles and the nation. To achieve its mission and advance translational research, the CTSI T1/T2 Accelerator Program periodically awards vouchers worth up to $10K to defray the cost of core services. Previous voucher recipients may apply only if a different proposal is being submitted.

Professional researchers, project scientists, research scientists, postdoctoral fellows, and graduate students are eligible to apply as a Co-Investigator with a faculty mentor.
